Dear Students,

Your Board Exams are starting soon; in this regard we the entire St. Xavier's community wish you all the best for your forthcoming Board Exams. Further we would like to advise you few things which you must take care of for better performance in your Board Exams.

1. It's simply an academic Test not the test of your entire ability. Hence keep calm and appear in the Exams with full Confidence.
2. Take a sound sleep at night before Exams.
3. Check Admit Card and all other articles which you may need in the Exam before leaving for Examination Centre.
4. Don't keep any unnecessary article with you in the Examination Hall.
5. Students will go in the regular blue uniform.
6. Read the instructions given in the Admit Card carefully.
7. You are advised to reach the Examination Centre at least 1 hour before the given time.
8. Fill the OMR sheet carefully.
9. Read the entire Question Paper properly before you start writing.
10. Attempt the question which is well prepared first, it will boost your confidence.

(Contd. P/2)

11. If you don't know any answers; skip it and go to the next question, you may attempt it again at last if you have time.
12. Leave proper margin and write the Question No. at the left margin. Put the correct Section No. as well.
13. Recheck the answer sheet before submitting.
14. If you have any doubt ask the invigilator only, don't try to communicate with other students.
15. You should carry your Admit Card & stationary items in transparent pouch only.
16. You must carry your Id cards of the school.
